

TALKING TO YOUR EMPLOYER

Among the many reasons why participation in Leadership Quest is a great investment, here are a few that may be most important to your employer:

- This program will not only prepare you for the next steps in your career but also the next steps for your organization.
- The leadership skills strengthened through these seminars will not only help to increase productivity but also impact your organization's bottom line.
- Building your awareness around the challenges our region is facing will help you to identify various ways in which your organization can engage more deeply in the local community.
- Surrounding yourself with a diverse group of local leaders will help generate fresh ideas and innovative solutions to the issues your organization may be facing.
- In growing your network, you are also establishing new connections for your organization as well as expanding your circle of influence.
- Upon completion of the program, you will gain access to additional opportunities to stay up-to-date on local issues and to connect with past, present, and future leaders from across the region.
