

October 7, 2020 Seminar Day

Location: Zoom / Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden, 1800 Lakeside Ave.

Leadership Topic: Navigating Ambiguity & Creativity for Social Innovation

Regional Issue Topic: The Impacts of COVID-19

8:00-8:30	Welcome & Good News – ZOOM
8:30-9:25	Birds of a Feather – Leadership Styles – ZOOM Facilitated by Myra Goodman Smith ('06), President & CEO, LMR (Breakout rooms in Immersion Teams)
9:25-9:30	Break
9:30-11:00	Creativity for Social Innovation – ZOOM Facilitated by Noah Scalin, Artist, Author, Activist, and Founder, Another Limited Rebellion
11:00-12:00	Break for travel to Lewis Ginter
Noon-12:45	Lunch
12:45 – 2:00	VUCA Tools (Values, Us, Curiosity, and Aspirations) for a VUCA World (Volatile, Uncertain, Complex, and Ambiguous) Presentation by Ann Deaton ('13), Ph.D., PCC, Managing Partner, The Bounce Collective
2:00-2:15	Break
2:15-4:00	Impacts of COVID-19 on the Richmond Region (class members break into small groups for 20-minute sessions with each of these presenters): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Philanthropic Response Sherrie Armstrong ('02), President & CEO, Community Foundation for a Greater Richmond • Healthcare System Response Sheryl Garland ('92), Chief of Health Impact, VCU Health System • Business Response Nancy Thomas, President & CEO, Retail Merchants Association • Transportation Response Julie Timm, CEO, GRTC Transit System
4:00-4:15	Break
4:15-4:45	Open Space to Discuss Personal Experience with COVID-19
4:45-5:00	Complete Evaluations