

Benefits for your Employer

Among the many reasons why participation in Leadership Quest is a great investment, here are a few that may be important to your employer:

- This program will not only prepare your employee for the next steps in their career but also the next steps for your organization.
- The leadership skills strengthened through these seminars will not only help to increase your employee's productivity but also impact your bottom line.
- Building your employee's awareness around the challenges our region is facing will help them to identify various ways in which your organization can engage more deeply in the local community.
- Surrounding themselves with a diverse group of local leaders will help them to generate fresh ideas and innovative solutions to the issues your organization may be facing.
- Upon completion of the program, your employee will gain access to additional opportunities to stay up to date on local issues and to connect with past, present, and future leaders from across the region.
- In growing your network, you are also establishing new connections for your organization as well as expanding your circle of influence.

Applications may be submitted online from February 27, 2023 until April 24, 2023.
